Sharalee S. Clawson, Barbara K. Marshall : I Feel My Savior's Love: Themes from Lds Children's Songs in Counted Cross-Stitch before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised I Feel My Savior's Love: Themes from Lds Children's Songs in Counted Cross-Stitch:

I Feel My Savior's Love: Themes from LDS Children's Songs in Counted Cross-stitch. Designed by Sharalee S. Clawson Barbara K. Marshall. This book contains four patterns of delightful depictions of Primary songs: "I Feel My Savior's Love," "I Hope They Call Me on a Mission," "I Love to See the Temple," and "Family Night is Always Fun." Two other patterns give variations of that theme: "Families are forever" and "Families can be together forever." A lovely pattern showing the east gates of the Salt Lake City Temple, plus small designs that can be worked and displayed separately, can be used to complete "The Temple Gates" project. The different depictions of various-aged children add a real sweetness to these designs.
