Dick Friesen : Introduction to Cabochon Cutting and the Lapidary Hobby before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Introduction to Cabochon Cutting and the Lapidary Hobby:

This book is intended to be a guide for the beginner in the art of cabochon cutting and a brief overview of the lapidary hobby. No attempt is made to present all of the views on the various steps in the cutting, sanding, and polishing process. The steps described here are those used by the author to instruct beginners in his shop and have been refined by 20 years of cutting for both the hobby and commercial fields.

About the Author Richard "Dick" Friesen has been teaching Lapidary Arts for over thirty years. This book is written for someone with little or no experience with the Lapidary Hobby and is intended to give enough information for a beginner to cut a first cab, as well as, additional information about the Lapidary Hobby. Dick lives in the San Francisco Bay Area, and travels extensively to shows and teaching venues throughout the United States. He can be reached through his website, www.dick.friesen.com, for additional information regarding this book, the contents therein.
