Michelle McCaleb : Jacob's House Coloring Book before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Jacob's House Coloring Book:

This coloring book is a fund raiser for Jacob's House in Humphreys' County, Tennessee where the first orphanage has begun. This first orphanage holds 8 children and all the proceeds for this coloring book will go to the orphanage. The story is a precious story about an ordinary man who has an extra-ordinary heart and obeys God and builds the house where children are destined for greatness.

About the AuthorI am happily married to Jeff McCaleb and we have three children, Jamie, Lacey, and Evan. We reside in the middle of Tennessee and enjoy our two grandchildren, Jaidan and Paris, and we are actively involved in their lives as well. In my daily life, I find that I cherish my 'God' time more and more. God has inspired me to write these daily devotionals. After spending alone time with God, he gives me the words to write to encourage another. During the week, I spend my work days helping others with career guidance and counseling to help those who are disadvantaged or are facing challenges. I enjoy being a part of something that is so positive in the lives of others. I enjoy attending church and have found that as life goes on, I want God to bless others as He has blessed me. Feeling God's presence comes with getting to know Him on a personal level and I find that reading the Bible daily helps my personal relationship with God. One of the ways I want to give back to our community is to help raise money for our first orphanage in town. I am so thankful for my community and all the people who have donated to this project and made it possible. I am so thankful, that I wanted to do this coloring book and book for 100% of the proceeds to go to the orphanage, Jacob's House. May God bless you.
