

(Free pdf) Journey: A Collaboration

Journey: A Collaboration

Jane Richmond, Shannon Cook
*ebooks | Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#1351123 in Books 2013-09-24 Original language: English 8.50 x .40 x 8.50l, .54 #File Name: 0991728912128 pages | File size: 15.Mb

Jane Richmond, Shannon Cook : Journey: A Collaboration before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Journey: A Collaboration:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Creator of the Magic Knot By Michelle Antoinette This clearly written book of patterns also demonstrates Jane Richmond and her partner's evolution as pattern designers! It is truly inspirational and well presented! Jane's YouTube video on the Magic Knot is very useful; I used it several times as I was knitting a lace shawl, and it is actually invisible, as she says! 4 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Couldn't wait to get this book! By Shawna Granville I have purchased several Jane Richmond patterns over the years and couldn't wait to get this book. I have already cast on my Climb socks and can't wait to start Spate. Jane's patterns have always been my favorite. Very well written, easy to understand and follow, and bonus: you get amazing accessories when you're finished! This was my first introduction to Shannon Cook. Her patterns are equally gorgeous! Her Onward Shawl is definitely on my list of items to knit. Through the well taken photos you see the "Journey" unfold. All in all a very well put together pattern book. Great Job Ladies! 11 of 12 people found the following review helpful. You need this book. By Sarah Chy If you are a knitter, you need this book. If you know a knitter, this is the perfect gift (better yet if you pair it with the authors' first book, Island). Not only is Journey a top-notch knitwear collection, it is also an inspired assemblage of beautiful photography making it so much more than just 6 awesome knitting projects. It touches the heart soul of what it means to be a craftsperson artist today and inspires readers to not only create these beautiful pieces, but to make them a part of their own 'journey'. Jane Richmond, Shannon Cook, and

Nicholas Kupiak have produced another winner!

A collaboration of hand knits from designers Jane Richmond and Shannon Cook inspired by the journey of self-discovery, independence and the path back to ones self. This gorgeous collection features accessible and comfortable patterns for garments, accessories, a shawl, and socks. Each pattern is designed to result in a new addition to any knitters wardrobe of handmade staples. Journey is a special book filled with beautiful photography set amongst the lush and inspiring landscape of Vancouver Island. Let the pages of this gorgeous book take you away on your own journey.

About the AuthorJane Richmond is a knitwear designer and a blogger who discusses her process and inspiration through her blog. Her work has appeared in Cascadia and November Knits. She is the author of Island. Shannon Cook is a knitting and sewing pattern designer and a blogger for the blog Very Shannon. Her work has appeared in books such as 3 Skeins or Less, Fat Quarters, and More than 50 Big Ideas. They both live in Victoria, British Columbia.