Kata Golda, Alison Kaplan : Kata Golda's Hand-Stitched Felt: 25 Whimsical Sewing Projects before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Kata Golda's Hand-Stitched Felt: 25 Whimsical Sewing Projects:

I thought it was going to be a book that showed you how to make cute little animals. It shows you how to make the finger puppets featured on the cover but the rest are things like bags and bookmarks. So I was disappointed in the patterns. My friend didn't mind too much, though she thought the same thing as I did.If you are looking for a book that shows you a wide range of things you can make out of felt, then go for it. If you are like me and thought you'd be getting a book showing you how to make plushies and cute dolls.. this is not the book for you.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. I expected moreBy amberI like Kata Golda's hand-stitched crafts and I expected this book to have better instructions and cuter projects. Instead, the instructions are vague and assume the reader can fill in the blanks (which, honestly, isn't difficult but I do think the instructions could be better). And, some of the projects are cute but I don't know that I would make more than one of some of these items. I was able to derive some ideas for my own projects but I actually got better ideas from browsing the author's Web site. Overall, the book is cute to look through and I'm happy to have it in my collection. If you don't need detailed instructions or want to imitate Golda's hand-stitched look, this book could be worth your time.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Lovely, dear bookBy RachelOh, do buy this book! I'm working through it with my 9 and 7 year old daughters, and the projects are clear and simple. Everything can be hand sewn, and you won't require loads of supplies. We made some very charming easter basket bunnies and they look as darling as we had hoped! This is wonderful for kids learning sewing skills and it's full of easy projects for baby gifts, holiday gifts, ect.

With no more than felt and thread, Kata Golda creates toys and practical items for the home that are undeniably charming, stylish, and sweetly imperfect. Her whimsical creations have been selling at high-end boutiques for several years, and now, in Kata Golda's Hand-Stitched Felt, she shows crafters of all skill levels how to make 25 of her favorites. Ranging from children's finger puppets and a tooth-fairy pillow to photo brag books, messenger bags, and curtains and blankets, most of these projects can be completed in an hour or less. They are made from basic shapes of wool felt sewn together and customized with unique details, all using simple, large stitches. Step-by-step instructions and templates, along with adorable photos and hand-drawn illustrations, make each project simple to replicate. Playful tutorials, such as how to personalize projects with a variety of facial expressions, add to the charm of this delightful book.

About the Author Kata Golda is the creator of a line of hand-stitched felt items that she makes and sells with the help of nine other women out of her home in Port Townsend, Washington.
