Becky Stevens : Knit Car Seat Blankets before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Knit Car Seat Blankets:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great baby gifts By Pat Ahern simple, easy to make, fast little blankets. I made 2 in about a week. Cute patterns too. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Sweet Little Booklet By Ann B McManus Great set of patterns (8) for small blankies that could easily be enlarged to full-size baby blankets, lap robes, or afghans. Suitable for beginning knitters with a couple of more challenging patterns included.

Patterns all use worsted weight yarn (generic weights and yardages are given rather than specific brands) and could be knit with any yarn from big box acrylics to washable wools or blends to luxury yarns. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. About the Author Becky Stevens made the move from her home state of Pennsylvania to Maryland more than 40 years ago -- which was about the time she started crocheting. She's learned so much about the skill since then that she teaches a weekly group in her home and holds an annual workshop at a New York lake resort. Becky says, "I think the most rewarding things about crochet are relaxing with your project and seeing the final result, especially when making a very personal, thoughtful gift."
