Wide Variety of Knittable, Fun Patterns for Kids' FootwearBy Lynne E.The subtitle tells it all: this is a book of 40 cute patterns for babies' and kids' knitted footwear. Originally published in Germany (Fr kleine Fsse stricken), the book contains patterns by talented sock designers whose names may not be immediately recognized by U.S. knitters. None of the designers are identified on the individual pattern pages, but the copyright page explains that the patterns on specific pages are by Nadja Brandt, Coats LLC, Friederike Pfund, Mathilde Putra, Barbara Sander, Lilja Sommer, Helga Spitz, and Stephanie van der Linden. Van der Linden's two patterns are "High Speed Chase" (anklets in size 9-12 months with big intarsia hearts or stars on the top of the foot), and "Dino Alert" (slippers in size 2-3 years with sewn-on toothed ridges running from ankle to toe). Other fun patterns are Pfund's "Mini-Harlequin" (felted slippers in size 2-3 years with jester's bells), "A Cossack on Tour" (felted slippers in size 2-3 years with multicolored, beaded, side tassels), and "Off to the Playing Field" (felted slippers in size 2-3 years that look like little laced tennis shoes).Of course there are lots of patterns for booties (including sizes 0-3 months and 0-6 months), and for little socks (including sizes 0-3 months, 3-6 months, 6-9 months, 6-12 months, 12-18 months, 18-24 months, and 2-3 years). The patterns are clearly labeled as easy, intermediate, and experienced. Because these are such small projects, new knitters will probably want to tackle even the experienced patterns, which use Fair Isle, intarsia, and textured stitches. The full-color photographs of the babies and children modeling the finished designs are quite charming (although not ethnically diverse). This book is a good choice for anyone who wants a wide variety of basic, knittable, fun patterns for children's booties, socks, and slippers. Assuming that the English pattern instructions (as translated from the German originals) are accurate, I rate this book at 5 stars. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great bok -- if you do not have access to patterns easily By L. Bush Personally, I think the layout and the pics are the best part of this book. It does have some very nice patterns and it is well worth the little I paid for it. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four Stars By SB Really cute pictures

What could be more fun than knitting for little feet? Both beginner and more advanced knitters will find a variety of 40 projects for newborns to four years, in this charming collection including dainty princess booties, sailor booties, striped socks, lace socks, snake socks, whimsical duck socks, warm felted slippers, dinosaur slippers and little jester slippers with bells to name a few.
